ATTENDANCE BINDERS

You may have noticed the small, black attendance binders located in each pew. In an effort to obtain updated membership information and better identify visitors and potential new members, the Chapter has created attendance binders. Please add your information to the attendance binder each Sunday and then pass the binder to others in your pew. When the binder is passed back to you, take note of any visitors and welcome them!

Congratulations to Matt Martino

Chapter Member of the Week:

Introducing Emily Hunt

Good morning and hello to all. My name is Emily Hunt and I am serving my second year on the Chapter as the clerk/ secretary. Over the past six years I have been attending Gethsemane, I have taught Sunday school and Children's choir and have participated in a variety of groups. At the moment you can find me most Sundays at the 11:00 service singing in the choir and I am also a member of Daughters of the King (DOK). I am the music teacher in Lidgerwood, ND and enjoy camping, fishing, hunting, crocheting, and anything having to do with music!

I grew up in Litchfield, MN and have been an Episcopalian since I was 3. Our church at home was very small and for the most part I was the only kid there, but that didn't stop me from experiencing church life. I was very active in my church being an acolyte, lector, chalice bearer, singing in choir, and even was certified to preside over Morning Prayer when we stopped having a full time minister. I went to summer camps from kindergarten through college, diocesan youth events twice a year in high school, and various other events through out Minnesota. As I began my college life, I started to have a crisis of faith due to the increasing number of deaths of friends and family and other tragedies around the world.

As I started to come back to the church, St. Stevens and Gethsemane, I found a wonderful family I could share my fears, doubts, and happiness with. I am very grateful for all the opportunities I have had to share and explore my faith here. I am extremely energized with everything that is going on in the church and I can't wait! If you ever have any questions, comments, or concerns, please don't hesitate to talk to myself or another of the Chapter members.
